What Do You Get from the Promo Code?

The MFH003 promo code grants a 60% deposit bonus, which can be used for trading on various assets, including forex pairs, commodities, stocks, and cryptocurrencies. This extra capital allows you to take larger positions or open multiple positions simultaneously, potentially amplifying your gains. However, it is essential to note that the bonus comes with a 50x turnover requirement. This means you must trade 50 times the bonus amount before you can withdraw those bonus funds or any profits derived from them.

For instance, if you deposit $500, you would receive an additional $300 as part of your trading balance (because 60% of $500 is $300). You then need to meet the 50x turnover on the bonus portion to unlock it for withdrawal. While turnover requirements can sometimes feel restrictive, they are a standard practice among trading platforms that offer deposit bonuses, serving as a means to ensure traders actually use the bonus for trading.
